DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are indefinite because the independent claims require application of “an aqueous composition comprising an amount, effective for the purpose of (a) hydrogen fluoride, followed by (b) a mixture of ...” It is not clear what is considered as “composition”. It is not clear what “purpose” is referenced.

For the examination purposes the claims were interpreted as requiring sequential application of a first composition, which comprises hydrogen fluoride, followed by application of a second composition, which comprises the recited mixture.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section

Art Unit: 1746

351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Prior to making the art rejections the examiner makes the following comment:

It is noted that the claims recite a method for removing by-products, and that some dependent claims specify the by products. However, these limitations are presented only in preamble of the claims and the referenced dependent claims only specify the preamble. The body of the claims do not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps are able to stand alone.

No patentable weight has been given to the referenced recitation of the by-products because the recitation occurs in the preamble. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535 F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).

5. Claims 1, 3, 4, 8-10, 12, 13, 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Park et al (US 2003/0235947).

Park et al teach a method as claimed. See entire document, especially part [0026].

6. Claims 1-6, 8-15 and 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Barnett et al (US 2005/0070120).

Art Unit: 1746

Barnett et al teaches a method as claimed. See entire document, especially part [0030].

7. Claims 1, 2, 7-11 and 16-18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Brask et al (US 2005/0048794).

Brask et al teach a method as claimed. See entire document, especially part [0008].
